WEBINAR SNAPSHOT

An exclusive webinar was held by the MCR for the National Executive Council of FGCN on 21st November 2025. The facilitator, Rev. Paul Kuzma (Director, Center for Spiritual Renewal, Christiansburg, VA, USA), shared on the topic, ‘Spiritual Renewal and Emotionally Healthy Discipleship.’

PURPOSE

The purpose of the webinar was to emphasize the importance of integrating spiritual renewal with emotional health in discipleship, drawing from Rev. Paul Kuzma’s personal journey and practical insights.

KEY THOUGHTS

Pastors are human: Ministers often forget their humanity, leading to exhaustion and burnout.

Spiritual renewal and emotional health are inseparable: Effective discipleship must include emotional well-being.

Personal testimony matters: Reverend Kuzman’s own journey through burnout and recovery illustrates the need for intentional care.

Rest and sabbaticals are essential: Breaks, counseling, and sabbaticals are not luxuries but necessities for sustainable ministry.

Community support is vital: Ministers should not suffer alone; collaborative care and shared experiences foster healing.

MCR is a lifeline: The program ensures that ministers have access to counseling, renewal facilities, and practical support nationwide.

Takeaways

- Burnout is common among ministers, but recovery is possible with the right support.
- Emotional health must be prioritized alongside spiritual growth.
- Counseling and therapy are valuable tools for ministers, not signs of weakness.
- Sabbaticals and intentional rest can prevent long-term damage to ministers’ health and calling.
- The MCR initiative provides a structured framework to ensure no minister suffers in isolation.
- Testimonies of recovery can inspire and encourage others to seek help.

Action Points

- 🎯 Expand Awareness – Continue educating ministers about emotional health and the MCR program’s vision.
- 🎯 Encourage Counseling & Sabbaticals – Promote the use of counseling services and sabbatical breaks among ministers.
- 🎯 Follow-up Engagements – Maintain ongoing support and communication with ministers who connect with MCR.
- 🎯 Future Webinars – Organize more sessions to deepen discussions on pastoral health, leadership renewal, and emotional well-being.
